

THE AMERICAN CENTER PRESENTS A PUBLIC LECTURE

Education: Balancing External Knowledge And Analytical Skills With Self-Awareness, Emotions And Our Spirit

by
Mr. Lalith Gunaratne

Lalith pioneered the model for retail marketing solar electricity systems with micro financing for rural off-grid households in Sri Lanka with the company Power & Sun Ltd in the late 1980s.

In the 1990s, he developed an international consultancy business in renewable and rural energy and has worked throughout Asia and Africa. Lalith is the founder, convener and head of the board of the Energy Forum of Sri Lanka, a non-profit organization promoting rural and renewable energy. He established a human resources development and experiential learning organization, Sage Training, in Sri Lanka in 2003, which provides training and capacity building for corporations, government and non-profit organizations in Sri Lanka and India.

He is a Mechanical Engineering Technologist (Nuclear) qualified in Canada, Marketer qualified in UK (CIM) and holds an MSc in Responsibility and Business Practice from the School of Management, University of Bath.
